PIEDMONT PREMIER

Meet your City Manager

Happy New Year, Piedmont—and welcome to the very first edition of Piedmont Premier.

As we begin a new year, it is an appropriate time to reflect on where we are, recognize how far we have come, and look ahead to where we are going as a community. Serving as your City Manager is both an honor and a responsibility I take seriously. For the past three and a half years, our organization has focused on strengthening operations, investing in critical infrastructure, and building a culture grounded in integrity, accountability, and transparency.

Piedmont is making measurable progress. Across the city, you can see investments taking shape—improved roadways and sidewalks, modernized water and sewer infrastructure, and projects designed to support long-term growth while protecting the character of our community. At the same time, significant work is happening behind the scenes to improve systems, processes, and financial stewardship to ensure these improvements are sustainable for years to come.

Piedmont Premier is part of our commitment to open and proactive communication. This newsletter is designed to provide clear, concise updates on projects, priorities, and initiatives underway at the City of Piedmont and the Piedmont Municipal Authority. Our intent is to create a single, reliable source of information that keeps residents informed and engaged in the work being done on their behalf.

Thank you for your continued trust and partnership as we work together to build a strong, resilient, and thriving Piedmont.

Josh Williams,
City Manager, Piedmont

● City News & Update

Welcome to our first edition of Piedmont Premier! We're excited to bring you the latest updates, stories, and happenings from across our community. Whether you're looking for upcoming events, local initiatives, important announcements, or a closer look at the people who make our city special, you'll find it all right here.

Our goal is to keep you informed, connected, and engaged with everything that makes our city a vibrant place to live, work, and explore.

As we move forward, your input remains essential. If there are topics you would like to see addressed in future editions of Piedmont Premier, we invite you to share your ideas by emailing info@piedmont-ok.gov.

● Mayor's Minute

I have spent my life right here in Piedmont. This town helped raise me. My dad owns a plumbing business in the community for most of my life, and through him I learned the value of hard work and helping your neighbors. While growing up at Piedmont First Baptist Church, my parents taught me the importance of community service and giving back, lessons I still live by today.

I was elected mayor in 2019 and am now serving my second four-year term. What I enjoy most about being mayor is getting to be part of Piedmont's growth while making sure we keep the small-town values that make it special. I've learned a lot about how local government works and enjoy meeting with other towns to share ideas.

Kurt Mayabb, Mayor
Term 2023-2027

What I love most about Piedmont is its mix of farms, businesses, and neighborhoods, all while keeping that small-town feel we're proud of. I look forward to future issues of the Mayor's Minute to share more with my community.

Employee Spotlight

I was born in Oklahoma City, and I went to high school at Putnam city original and this is where I met my wife of 22 years. Together we have raised 2 children, our daughter who is now 19 and a freshman in college, and a son now 16. I enlisted in the United States Marine Corps after High School. However, the needs of my family brought me home to the Metro again. For many years I worked in a wide variety of professions, searching for a path that brought me a sense of purpose. Law Enforcement became that calling for me. Having the chance to return to Piedmont and serve the community that I considered a part of my origin story has been a blessing on my life and my family. I think one of my favorite things about working in the city of Piedmont has to be the residents, and the sense of community. I truly enjoy the impromptu conversations throughout the day and getting to know the folks of Piedmont in a deeper way. Love, grace, and empathy are the core values I try to incorporate in all I do in life and Piedmont has been the perfect community for me to do just that.

Keith Downer
Sgt., Piedmont Police Dept.

“Serving others has become my ethos. Ralph Waldo Emerson said, ‘The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful to be honorable to be compassionate and have it made some difference that you have lived and lived well.’

This is a community where you can live and live well, and I am very grateful to be able to serve and be a part of it.”
